Ski, Snowboard and Social Club

Ski, ~~Snowboard~~ and Social Club

Commented [LGBC2]:

The Ski, Snowboard, and Social Club has been a part of 3M Club for over 60 years. We are a social and activity club comprised of 3M employees and their friends. The club was formed in the 1950s to organize fun, exciting, and economical ski trips to local and out-of-state ski areas. Although alpine (downhill) skiing and snowboarding is the most frequent winter activity, the club also organizes numerous other social events and activities throughout the year. Membership is open to all 3M employees and their friends and family (ages 21+). Ski – Ride – Social: all are welcome. Learn more about our club on our website: www.hootline.com

The club's 2020 overnight trip season began over the first weekend of January to Big Snow Resort in Upper Peninsula Michigan as part of Winter Carnival, an annual gathering of area ski/board clubs. We were a part of 147-person group who bussed up on Friday and then enjoyed up to 3 days of skiing and a banquet dinner. The accommodations ranged from hotel rooms to slope-side condos at Indianhead resort. A first-timer on this trip said, "This is the most economical weekend ski trip that I didn't have to plan!"

At the end of January, we enjoyed 5 days of skiing at the 4 resorts at Aspen Snowmass, Colorado. A benefit of traveling with our club? Beautiful, slope-side condos with a private ski/board rental & service center. Then a quick ski down to the bunny hill (for the beginners) or the gondola for full access of 3000+ skiable acres at Snowmass resort. Many of us also enjoyed free bus rides to Aspen (to look for famous people; we met Bode Miller), Aspen Highlands (to hike the bowl), and Buttermilk (great for snowboarders).

All throughout winter, our club hosted and joined other clubs at a variety of local Meet & Ski events at Wild Mountain, Afton Alps, and Welch Village. We negotiated Black Diamond Discounts at local resorts and retailers for Ski Club Card carriers. Also, as advertised on the corporate monitors and our club's website, www.hootline.com, Afton Alps offered all 3M employees and retirees the 'Flash Your Badge' discount of $39 lift ticket and $25 rental for you and your immediate family with no date/time restriction.

Then due to COVID-19, we cancelled our March 2020 week-long trip to Val di Fassa, in the Italian Dolomites. While it is an unfortunate situation to unravel, we are extremely grateful that our club members are safely at home during this global pandemic. All of our March and April club social events were also cancelled or postponed.

As we roll into May, we look forward to a summer of social activities, including kayaking the Kinnickinnic River out of River Falls, WI in August. For updates to our club events, check out www.hootline.com or join our "Hootline" group on Facebook.

For membership details and all the latest information, visit www.hootline.com or contact Joanne Harvala (President) or Ben Gandy (VP of Membership).
