2022/2023 SEASON

CLASSICAL

The Minnesota Orchestra musicians share with you a season of vivid contrasts and colors: from the eternal beauty of Haydn's The Creation to brea(d)th, an urgent 21st-century composition that embraces the aspiration of racial equity through music-centered community healing. We offer the fireworks of Stravinsky's The Rite of Spring, the holiday warmth of El Mesias with Border CrossSing, and the hope of spring in a Lunar New Year performance.

LIVE AT ORCHESTRA HALL

The Minnesota Orchestra's Live at Orchestra Hall series features collaborative concerts with Emmy- and Tony Award-winning actress and singer, Kristin Chenoweth in December, and an exciting return of singer, songwriter and essayist, Dessa for a powerful collaboration that transcends genre in August.

The U.S. Bank Movies & Music series brings feature films into the concert hall, where the movies are shown on a large screen above the stage while the Orchestra performs every note to the corresponding scores live.

FAMILY CONCERTS

Every family is unique, but there is one thing they all have in common—the need to be together. Minnesota Orchestra performances offer a perfect opportunity to get your family together for a special outing. Enjoy cherished holidays, go on a musical adventure or learn about music in a fun way.

LIVESTREAM AND BROADCAST CONCERTS

Minnesota Orchestra concerts will continue to be available for television, radio and streaming audiences this season in addition to our regular performances for in-person audiences at Orchestra Hall. Audiences will be able to access six live Minnesota Orchestra concerts on Twin Cities PBS (TPT-2), as well as on the Orchestra's website and social media channels.
